Covid-19 Statement 22/04/2020

Calls to the office number are still answered so repair queries and parts orders can still be dealt with.

There may be some delay in the parts delivery time depending upon the supplier and their particular situation.

The office is manned during the day by one or two people. You are welcome to visit in order drop off or collect repairs however we ask all visitors to knock on the door and wait for someone to answer.

Please for everyone's safety do not enter the workshop. We also advise calling before arriving.

As the situation changes we shall be updating our policy and we intend to keep going and improve the service we can deliver in accordance with Government advice.

We thank-you for your support and understanding during this difficult period. If we all behave with thought and consideration to others we will come through this for the better.

Best Regards
ART Ltd
